Giving
Hope
Today

The Salvation Army Picton Community Church is committed to serving with compassion as we supply essential services to those who are in need within our community. As The Salvation Army, we always strive to do the best we can to meet people's needs and to continue to be an organization that brings hope to all we meet.

This is accomplished through providing immediate assistance, including:

- Food bank (Tues., Wed., Thurs., 9am-12pm)
- Emergency assistance
- Temporary emergency accommodations
- Clothing / baby supplies / personal hygiene / household & cleaning supplies
- Easter / Thanksgiving / Christmas hampers
- Christmas gifts and toys for youth
- Back-to-school supplies program
- Monthly free hot lunches for PECE secondary students
- Community events and outreach programs
- Referrals to community support agencies
- Emotional and spiritual support
- Additional services as needs are identified

With support like yours, our mandate to bring hope will continue to be a reality. By supporting The Salvation Army Picton Community Church, you are giving the gift of hope and peace of mind to local families in knowing they can easily access support during difficult and uncertain circumstances.

THANK YOU TO OUR GAME DAY SPONSOR!!!

Heidelberg Materials (the Picton Cement Plant) are longstanding and faithful supporters of The Salvation Army Picton Community Church. For the last several years, we have partnered to offer Easter Feast & Thanksgiving Feast Hampers to our clients. They provide funds to cover the cost of groceries, and even help to pack hampers and distribute hampers to our clients!

They also donate money toward our Christmas programs each year. They are an amazing group who work diligently to help support our local community members.

Why do I love being a Duke?
It's a great place to play because of the amazing fans and community around the team.

I want Dukes fans to know:
